

Hertfordshire SACRE Holocaust Memorial day 2018 CPD

An invitation to attend a FREE twilight CPD session, open to all Hertsmere schools wishing to participate in the Hertfordshire SACRE Holocaust Memorial Day commemoration event 2018

Wednesday 13th September 2017, 4.30pm - 5.30pm

Dame Alice Owen's School, Dugdale Hill Lane, Potters Bar, Hertfordshire, EN6 2DU

Suitable for teachers of students in Years 9-13, this session aims to:

- outline a detailed overview of the Hertfordshire HMD commemoration event
- provide practitioners with an understanding of requirements for teaching about the Holocaust and contemporary genocides
- explore methods of developing students' curiosity and understanding in order to facilitate personal reflection
- develop ways of supporting and engaging students to educate others in their learning communities

This session will be delivered by Lisa Kassapian and Ellie Olmer, Breathe RE, on behalf of Hertfordshire SACRE.

Training and consultancy provided by Breathe RE

Lisa Kassapian is an inspirational national religious education consultant, with an outstanding reputation for providing quality advice and high-impact training for religious education, collective worship and humanities.

Lisa offers a range of practical training, through her independent consultancy, Breathe RE, which raises pupil attainment and progress through transformational classroom teaching and learning, leadership development and enhanced practitioner confidence and pedagogy.

Ellie Olmer is a motivational RE teacher and Holocaust educator. Her international experience includes work with the Holocaust Educational Trust, Lessons from Auschwitz project, European teacher study trips, and the International Holocaust school in Israel. Ellie is an advisor and facilitator for Holocaust Memorial Day events.
